Discussion was held and comments made by both Committee members and the public. Micah Chappell provided background information and indicated many of the suggested changes are nullifying all the work that was previously done and making the information more confusing. After

	discussion and input was provided, it was suggested to return to the “old” table and discussion was held in reference to the ICC table. It was noted that definitions would be reviewed and researched to ensure consistency with other codes, the table would be updated with reversion to the “old” table and changes made today, after which, the document would be posted prior to the next meeting. Both Todd Beyreuther and Dustin Curb would work on the changes/updates.
5. Embodied Carbon Proposal	Dustin Curb provided a summary of the comments received and noted all were posted on the SBCC website for today’s meeting. Roger Heeringa indicated he wanted to focus on the technical part of the proposal, today. Information was provided for each of the letters that were submitted, some in favor of moving forward with the proposal and some in opposition. There was discussion on the 3 pathways, whether this should be in the building code and if it’s too early to make decisions. Several Committee members agreed that they weren’t ready to move this proposal forward. It was suggested work could be done parallel with both Commerce and the Legislature to bring forward rulemaking for the building code and not oppose this proposal. Motion: Tom Handy moved to recommend to the Council to not adopt this proposal as part of the 2024 building code or as an appendix, Angela Haupt seconded, the motion passed, 3 to 1, and although not needed to break a tie, Committee Chair, Roger Heeringa asked for his “no” vote to be recorded. The motion passed 3 to 2. Further discussion was held, again, in both agreement and opposition to the motion. Both Roger Heeringa and Todd Beyreuther agreed further consideration by the full Council would occur at the July 25 Council meeting.
