4. Continued Analysis: <ul style="list-style-type: none">IBC/IEBCIFCIMC/IFGC	Dustin Curb provided a brief background from the last meeting and provided status of some of the Codes to include recent and upcoming meetings. He indicated he wasn't able to complete the questionnaire due to the amount of time spent on current workload. Discussion was held on the questionnaire/survey and if this would achieve the best results, if there was enough time to get back useful responses, and what other options could be used for additional feedback. Discussion was then held on the "next steps" which included the SBEIS process to be included with the CR-102. It was suggested to have a "Listening Session" to receive additional input on the proposals. It was also suggested to flag the
